User Conduct

National Geographic Learning wants to encourage an open exchange of information and ideas on the Site. National Geographic Learning neither endorses nor guarantees the accuracy of any User Content. National Geographic Learning does not preview, censor, approve, edit, or endorse User Content and cannot guarantee that inappropriate material will not be posted. National Geographic Learning may review User Content from time to time and may take steps to remove inappropriate User Content that comes to its attention; however, it engages in no routine monitoring of the Site. There is no substitute for healthy skepticism and your own good judgment.

You agree to assume full and sole responsibility for any User Content you post to the Site, and you agree to:

1. Abide by the Community at National Geographic Learning Rules for Members (which are fully incorporated into these Terms);
2. Post User Content that is relevant to and appropriate for the specific topic and designed to help people share information and supports National Geographic's mission of inspiring people to care about the world.

4. Neither post nor transmit any unlawful, obscene, defamatory, libelous, threatening, pornographic, harassing, hateful, racially or ethnically offensive User Content, or User Content that encourages conduct that would be considered a criminal offense, give rise to civil liability, violate any law, or any other User Content that infringes on the ability of others to enjoy the Site, or is otherwise inappropriate;

7. Not post anonymously or impersonate any other person;
8. Neither use nor launch any automated means, including "robots," "spiders," or "offline readers" that accesses the Site in a manner that sends more request messages to the National Geographic Learning servers in a given period of time than a human can reasonably produce in the same period by using a conventional online web browser (other than by individually performed searches on publicly accessible search engines for the sole purpose of, and solely to the extent necessary for, creating publicly available search indices — but not caches or archives — of the Site and excluding those search engines or indices that host, promote, or link primarily to infringing or unauthorized content); and

9. Not to alter or modify any part of the Site, make no use that would interfere with or disrupt the Site or servers or networks connected to the Site, make no User Content available (whether through upload, post, email, transmit, or otherwise) that contains software viruses or any other computer code, files, or programs designed to interrupt, destroy, or limit the functionality of any computer software or hardware or telecommunications equipment, and neither circumvent nor disable any security or data-protection measures implemented by National Geographic Learning.

CAUTION: ANY ATTEMPT BY ANY PERSON TO DELIBERATELY DAMAGE THE SITE IS A VIOLATION OF CRIMINAL AND CIVIL LAWS. SHOULD SUCH AN ATTEMPT BE MADE, NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC LEARNING RESERVES THE RIGHT TO SEEK DAMAGES FROM ANY SUCH PERSON TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW.

Indemnification

You agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless National Geographic Learning its affiliates and partners, and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, members, licensors, representatives and third-party providers to the Sites from and against all losses, expenses, damages and costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, resulting from any violation of these Terms. National Geographic Learning reserve the right to assume, at its sole expense, the exclusive defense and control of any matter subject to indemnification by you, in which event you will fully cooperate with National Geographic Learning in asserting any available defenses.

Miscellaneous

Any and all disputes, with the exception of copyright claims, arising out of, under or in connection with this Agreement, including without limitation, its validity, interpretation, performance, or breach, shall be settled by final and binding arbitration in New York, New York., pursuant to the rules of the American Arbitration Association. Judgment upon any award rendered may be entered in the highest court of the forum, state or federal, having jurisdiction. This Agreement, its validity and effect, shall be interpreted under and governed by the laws of the State of New York, without regard to its conflict of laws provisions, and you agree that the arbitrators shall award all costs of arbitration, including reasonable attorneys' fees plus legal rate-of-interest, to the successful party. Copyright claims shall be brought in the Federal court having jurisdiction. If you are an agent for or an employee of a non-U.S. company but operate in a place of business in the U.S. or its territories, you expressly agree that any dispute regarding this contract shall be adjudicated within the U.S. in the manner described here. If National Geographic Learning is obligated to go to court, rather than arbitration, to enforce any of its rights, you agree to reimburse National Geographic Learning for its respective legal fees, costs, and disbursements if National Geographic Learning is successful.

These Terms and any other operating rules or terms currently posted on the Site constitute the entire agreement between National Geographic Learning and the users of the Site, and supersede all previous written or oral agreements between the parties with respect to such subject matter. No action of National Geographic Learning may be construed as a waiver of any part of these Terms. Should any of the above paragraphs be unenforceable, the other paragraphs will remain in full force and effect. Paragraph headings are for reference only.
